

The impressions of the Four Duta MudaPertanian

<http://news.ipb.ac.id>

Posted by admin on 22 May 2013

Agricultural activities for the four Youth Ambassadors (Duta MudaPertanian) as winners of the IPB Agricultural tagline was implemented on the third day, Saturday, 18 May 2013. Special program was planned to make them more familiar with Bogor's icons. One of the itineraries of the program was visiting Museums Zoology and Bogor Botanical Garden. Prior to have the guided tour to those places, the those best students participated the Seminar on Education and Health in Common Class Room (CCR), Dramaga Campus. The impressions of those best students while they undertook the activities, were presented as follows:

Andika Nurriq Prowira of SMAN 1, Bojonegoro: "Alhamdulillah, today I am sure would be important day for me, as would get more experiences and insights. Starting by participating the seminar, to visit the Serambi Botani which offers very high quality products, and the memorable dinner as well. In the near future I expect that more agricultural events better than IPB has will be organized. To be sure, the days spent in Bogor was fantastic. "

Prayoga Rahmat of SMAN 1, Parung: "Thank God, today was a very memorable experience for me, because tonight would be the last evening for the four of us to experience the softness of the hotel beds. The memorable dinner together with members of the Organizing Committee as well as the award granted by IPB. Thank God this will always be remembered. IPB is my dream university, I hope my dreams will come true. Ameen "

Dede Abdul Hamid of SMAN 1 Babakan, Cirebon: "Today is the happy day for me. I started my day by attending the health seminar, a very educative seminar. My feeling was getting happier when we were guided to visit the Botanical Gardens, it is completely cool and fresh atmosphere that made me excited. The next item of the program was visiting the Museum Zoology plus shopping at the Botany Square. Watching movie and dinner at Guruh 7 was very entertaining and I can not express my feeling with any words. Hopefully IPB will organize such event, because it will spur on the creativity Indonesian youths "

Asep Koharudin of MAN 2 Sukabumi: "This Saturday is the happy day for me. As on this day I could participate in the Health Seminars. By participating such seminar I was able to learn more about IPB, especially its educational program activities. The visit to the Bogor Botanical Gardens, Zoology Museum and to do the shopping at the Serambi IPB had added happiness on our happy lists today. Dinner together with Mr. Bonny, the Executive Secretary of IPB and the Chairman of the Organizing Committee on the anniversary, followed by souvenirs presentation made this evening the impressive evening for me. Hopefully those program would become the green light for me to be admitted at IPB. Ameen. I Love Agriculture, I Love IPB". (Wied).