The First International Seminar on Animal Industry 2009

“Sustainable Animal Production for Food Security and Safety”

Dear Colleagues,

In November 23-24, 2009, the 1st International Seminar on Animal Industry, entitled “Sustainable Animal Production for Food Security and Safety”, will be held in IPB International Convention Centre, Bogor, West Java, Indonesia. The seminar is being organized by the Faculty of Animal Science, Bogor Agricultural University, Bogor.

The invited speakers of the seminar are Dr. Gerold Rahmann (Institute of Organic Farming, Germany), Prof. S. Yamamoto (Hiroshima University, Japan), Prof. I. Zulkifli (Universiti Putra Malaysia, Malaysia), and Ahmad Mujahid, PhD (NAS Laboratory Co. Ltd., Japan).

In the seminar, we expect to have interesting discussion on current animal research especially on efficiencies and productivities of livestock; perspectives of stakeholders on potencies, prospect, and constraints on animal industry; animal biotechnology, animal business in global era; and other relevant topics. We hope that this seminar supplies a scientific recommendation to government and non government institutions on policy development of food security and safety, improvement of international linkage for solving the problems in animal production, strengthen the international collaborative research and the exchange of information.

We hope you will be able to attend the seminar and look forward to welcoming you to Bogor in this year for a successful and rewarding seminar.
